Be sure to choose the correct type of resource before pasting the website URL, book title, etc! (Check out tab titled, All 59 Options.)

Realize that are not your final step!!

Do not click “Create Citation” until you have attempted to complete the citation and fill in the blanks. Go back to your source and attempt to find the rest of the information!

Check both the top and bottom of the webpage for information such as author, publisher, and date.

Email, copy & paste or save your list of citations to your Google Docs by clicking on “Export”.

Your Citations (5)

To cite a Social Media, visit the library webpage (inforsu16.weebly.com) and click on “How to Cite Social Media” near the top of the library homepage!

If using a database, check to see if the article gives you the completed citation! Most of them do! It will save you a lot of time. There is usually either a link to Citation Tools, like the example below OR the citation appears at the end of the database article.

If using a database that does not give you citation information, you cannot simply copy and paste the URL into EasyBib’s Website format. You must manually enter the information. Choose Database from the list of resources.

To create a citation for a Digital Image, complete the “Digital Image” form in EasyBib, under All 59 Options. DO NOT cite Google Images! You must visit the actual webpage where the image lives!

To cite a Youtube video or a video from any other website, simply use the citation format for a website.
